Re: Note of appreciation to James D. Murphy who was in attendance at the Westminster College commencement

Mr. Murphy expresses his appreciation for your message at the 17 May commencement at Westminster College. He also requests your signature to add to his collection of famous Americans. I recommend that you sign the attached letter of appreciation which will also fulfill his request for your signature.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

Thank you for your recent letter and kind remarks. It is always an honor and a privilege to be invited to participate in a commencement exercise at one of our nation's colleges. It was a particularly rewarding experience to address the graduates at Westminster College and I am pleased that my message had such an impact.

Best regards.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster

Dear Sir,

I was privileged to hear you speak to the graduates and guests at Westminster College in Fulton, MO this past May 17. We all enjoyed your message and your statement that "we must not let political turmoil in Washington distract the nation from its leadership role in the world," is even more profound today!

Please accept this letter also, as a request for your signature to add to my collection of autographs of famous Americans. Sincerely,
James D. Wenzelby
